

A WORLD'S RECORD HOLDER. The gentleman flying through space is Charles Vasesha, of Switzerland, champion ski jumper of the world, with a record leap of 203 feet, making a practice jump at Lake Placid in preparation for the international ski jumping championships, which were held at that popular Adirondack resort last Monday. Levick

SUNDAY ON FIFTH AVENUE, but it was last Sunday when New York was hit with its biggest one-day blizzard in twenty years. A couple of the city's new motor truck plows are shown clearing a right of way in front of Lord & Taylor's, while the two Arctic explorers in the foreground are busily looking for the weather shark who prognosticated an early spring. Underwood

THE SLEEPING SICKNESS is not a new disease. It's one of the most common and popular maladies ever patented and one which knows no age or season. Here's a sufferer "sawing wood" — not at Palm Beach, but on a park bench over Newark way last Saturday, just a few hours before the heavens dropped a foot or more of snow on the unsuspecting community. Galloway

A JAP'S NAVAL HOLIDAY. A hardy old son of Nippon takes his daily swim in the Sumido River at Tokio, and just to prove that its chilly waters (the photo was taken the last of January, Japan's coldest month) doesn't even give him cold feet, he flies a feather pennant between his toes. How far could you navigate under similar circumstances without wetting the feather? International

AMERICA'S TWO TENNIS "ACES" in action last month in Auckland, New Zealand, where they made a clean sweep of the Davis Cup championships by defeating the famous Australians, Pattersons and Brookes, five matches in a row. In the smaller circle, "Big" and "Little" Bill, as William M. Johnston, of Frisco, and William T. Tilden 2d., of Philly, the two greatest tennis players in the world, are popularly known, snapped as they arrived in San Francisco after their conquering trip to the Antipodes. Keystone-Underwood

"WE SHOULD WORRY ABOUT BLIZZARDS," laugh these two happy bathers at Palm Beach as they strike an attractive acrobatic pose for our cameraman — Mrs. Peggy Fox, of New York, with Miss Rosalind Kendall, of Chicago, on her shoulders. U & U
